

SUED KRAUSE FOR A MILLION DOLLARS

Wyoming Real Estate Man Asks $992,000 in Suit Filed On Transfer of a Potash Lake

The Sunday Omaha World-Herald contained the following article regarding the suit of Peter J. Long against John H. Krause of Alliance for $992,000, arising out of the transfer of a section of land northeast of Alliance to Krause in January, 1916:

A western Nebraska lake covering 400 acres which, together with 260 acres of land, was sold two years ago for $8,000 by Peter J. Long to John H. Krause and his brother Herman, of Sheridan county, Nebraska, was really worth $1,000,000, says Long and he has asked the Douglas district court to order Krause to pay him the difference, $992,000, between the price he got for the property and its real value.

A motion to force Long to give bond for the cost of the suit was argued in Judge Sears' court Saturday by Attorney John M. Macfarland, acting for Krause. The court sustained the motion. Next week a demurrer to another motion will be argued and the main case will probably go to trial before Christmas.

The word "potash" explains the difference between the value of the property two years ago and today. According to the petition, Long, a real estate man of Wyoming, owned 640 acres in Sheridan county, Nebraska. Four hundred acres of the tract was in a lake. The water of the lake was brackish and could not be used by cattle.

John H. Krause is a cattle man living in Sheridan county. He owns 30,000 acres of land in that county. Krause purchased Long's 640 acres, and paid him $8,000 for the tract. The deal was made in January, 1916. Long says Krause knew the property was worth $1,000,000 at the time but that he himself did not know it.

Krause, he says in his petition, knew that the lake was worth $1,000,000 for its potash but that he persuaded Long that the bottom had dropped out of the potash market and that Nebraska potash fields were worthless. He alleges, in his petition, that Krause owes him $992,000 and asks the court to award him that sum.

Krause is said to be drawing $1,000 daily from a small portion of his land which is being used for potash production purposes.

CHARLEY TASH LOOKS OUT FOR SOLDIER BOYS

His Office as military Policeman Gave Him an Opportunity to Issue Pointed Placards

Charley Tash, son of Judge I. E. Tash of Alliance, is a military policeman in the United States army in France. In writing to engineer Carl Nelson at Ravenna recently Charley enclosed copies of some placards which he had been compelled to have printed and posted in order that the soldier boys be made to use care in riding on the trams in France. The American box cars and railway equipment is so much larger than that used by the French that sometimes in going through tunnels the fit is rather close.

The placards read as follows:
THREE KINDS OF FOOLS
1. Fools
2. Damned Fools
3. SOLDIERS WHO RIDE ON TOPS AND SIDES OF CARS.

A great many American Soldiers have already been killed as a result of riding on top of cars. There is only six inches clearance between tops and sides of cars and tunnel arches. There is only six inches clearance between tops and sides of cars and bridges superstructures. There is only a slight clearance between sides of cars and signal towers. IF YOU EXPECT TO SEE THE NEXT BLOCK, KEEP YOURS INSIDE

Mr. Harvey has a wide circle of friends and starts out with every promise of success. Last week he purchased the building at 115 Box Butte avenue, formerly occupied by the Nohe Bakery and Cafe and more recently by Crane's pool hall. This building is being thoroughly renovated and placed in shape for occupancy. Mr. Harvey expects to open another cafe there at an early date.

An invitation to call and see him at the Silver Grill.

NOTICE

To Clarence E. Thompson Non-resident defendant:

You are hereby notified that on July 27th, 1918 Eva M. Thompson filed a petition against you in the District Court of Box Butte County Nebraska, the object and prayer of which was to obtain a divorce from you, and the care, custody, control and education of the children of the said marriage, on the ground that you have willfully abandoned and failed to support the plaintiff without good cause for the term of more than two years last past preceding the filing of said action. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 20th day of January, 1919.

Eva M. Thompson, By Burton & Reddish, her attorneys. 1-57-1717.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF BOX BUTTE COUNTY.

In the Matter of the Estate of Margaret M. Andress, Deceased.

To Roderick B. Andress; Hulda Andress; Mary Elizabeth Maen; William M. Andress; Alice A. Tansue and Frank Tansue, her husband; William S. Andress; and Lucinda S. Andress, his wife; and Jacob S. Andress and Minerva Andress, his wife; heirs, devisees and legatees of Margaret M. Andress, late of the county of Warren and the state of New Jersey, deceased and all creditors and other heirs and persons interested in the estate of the said Margaret M. Andress and particularly all persons who have or claim any interest in the Southwest Quarter (SW 1/4) of Section Nineteen (19) Township Twenty-seven (27) North of Range Fifty-one (51) West of the 6th of M in Box Butte County, Nebraska.

You are hereby notified that on the 3rd day of December A. D. 1918 Ferdinand Nikont filed a petition in this Court with a copy of the last will of Margaret M. Andress attached thereto alleging that said Margaret M. Andress died in the County of Warren in the State of New Jersey in the year A. D. 1897, then being the owner of the real estate above described. That he purchased the real estate of the heirs and devisees of the said Margaret M. Andress and is now the sole owner thereof.

The prayer of said petition is that the will of Margaret M. Andress be admitted to probate and allowed as her last will. That the time and place of her death, the place of her residence at the time she died, the interest of the petitioner in said real estate, and the right to the succession thereof under said will will be determined by this Court, and that the regular administration of said estate be dispensed with. And that the Court further decree that all debts of the decedent and all claims against her estate have been paid in full and that said land be assigned as under the terms of said will provided free and clear of all debts of said decedent.

D. 1918 at one o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at which time you are required to appear and show cause why said will should not be allowed and said petition granted and a decree rendered as therein prayed.

It is ordered that notice of the hearing on said petition be published for three weeks immediately preceding the hearing in the Alliance Herald, a weekly newspaper published and of general circulation in said county.

WHERE WOUNDED MEN YIELD TO DAY DREAMS

Restored to Health and Vigor in Red Cross Convalescent Homes.

The surgeon has extracted the impartially distributed bits of shrapnel from your works. The wounds have healed. The wheels go round again, and the clock ticks.

But it doesn't keep correct time. This business of calling "Time!" on the Boche means so many broken clocks nowadays that the master-menders can't keep them on their tables after they're mended. So the question where they shall sit around while they're being regulated looms large.

The Red Cross answers that question with its convalescent homes. It has six of these in operation. A suitable place is found—sometimes donated—and management and equipment are provided by the Red Cross, while the Army has furnished discipline and a never-failing supply of convalescents.

These homes mean that men who are scarcely hospital subjects, yet who can by no means go back to their duties, have a place that does what "home" does for the French or English soldier, what "home" does for any one, in fact, when the doctor gets through.

You know. He says: "You're all right now. It's only a matter of nursing and food."

But you know he's only looking at the works he's tinkered, and that the soul within you is grouching as it never did when the body was down and out. It wants something, and it doesn't know what it is. But if it doesn't get it pretty quick the works are going to get gummed again. You know your mother could find out what that dog-gone thing is right away and hand it to you on a plate. But General Pershing won't let you go to her. * * * And the War Department won't let her come to you.

Then you're taken to a Red Cross convalescent home—and there is the very thing you wanted! But you couldn't describe it even then to save your life.

It is a bit of coddling, and pretty surroundings, and women's faces, and light laughter and time to play and all that sort of thing. It is forgetting the crash of war and remembering that there are pleasant, soft voices. It's even such things as gaily-flowered sofa pillows to jam into a corner and make a nice lolling place while you read and smoke and talk. It's slippers instead of trench boots, or day-dreams in place of the nightmare of killing.

NO SEALS SOLD THIS YEAR.

The customary sale of Red Cross Christmas seals will not be held this year. It seemed best to both the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association to unite in the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call to reduce the number of appeals to the public for contributions. There will be no lessening of activities by the National Tuberculosis Association through this arrangement. As the Red Cross War Council has appropriated $2,500,000 for anti-tuberculosis work in 1919 in lieu of the money that ordinarily would be raised by a Christmas Seal Campaign. However, every person joining the Red Cross during the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call will be awarded ten seals to be used as heretofore.

THE RED CROSS GORDON.

An American Red Cross worker who was among those volunteering to help in the hospitals and at the station where the hospital trains arrived, overheard some of the wounded talking about the American Red Cross.

"Gee! We'd starved if it hadn't been for the Red Cross!" said one boy, and then, laughing at his own exaggeration, he went on to explain the circumstances under which the Red Cross representative with his division had done some timely service. The Germans, of course, were to blame, for they retreated so rapidly that it was practically impossible for the supplies to keep up with the pursuing Americans.

"We cleaned up seven kilometers in less than two hours," another reclining figure explained, "and they were still going when I was knocked out. For three days I had had nothing to eat but hard tack, and for some days before the food had been monotonous—to put it mildly. So you can imagine what it meant to us boys to have the Red Cross Gordon come up with a supply of chocolate, canned peaches and other good things. It was a life-saver."
